Expand/Collapse Synopsis. Businesses and Information Technology Security Professionals have spent a tremendous amount of time, money and resources to deploy a Defense in Depth approach to Information Technology Security. Yet successful attacks against RSA, HB Gary, Booz, Allen & Hamilton, the United States Military, and many others are examples of how Defense in Depth, as practiced, is unsustainable and the examples show that the enemy cannot managerial cost make defense-in-depth impractical to fully implement (Small 2011), because massive unnecessary efforts might be wasted on irrelevant attack vectors and security activities. With limited resources, system wide defense-in-depth provides only a wide but low-level defense across the network, which might be able to stop sophisticated attackers.
