Tall Chimneys is hidden in a damp and gloomy hollow. It is outmoded and inconvenient but Evelyn is determined to save it from the fate of so many stately homes at the time - abandonment or demolition. Occasional echoes of tumult in the wider world reach their sequestered backwater - the strident cries of political extremists, a furore of royal scandal, rumblings of the European war machine.

Tall Chimneys: A British Family Saga Spanning 100 Years ...

Tall Chimneys is the name of a big country house in Yorkshire. Our tale is narrated by Evelyn, youngest child of the family, born in the early part of the 20th century. She loses both parents when young and is brought up by an older sister for the most part. She then returns to the family home and ends up effectively as housekeeper and caretaker.
